 The image consists of two parts: a photograph of the Earth from space showing the Western Hemisphere, and a map of the United Kingdom with Edinburgh highlighted by a red star and the text 'EDINBURGH'.	This work will be shown to be people around the world and people at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe.

Horizon wants to support artists to come to Edinburgh, see performances, learn from each other and meet people from around the world.

Specifically Horizon wants to support artists who:

- Are disabled
- Are D/deaf
- Are neurodivergent
- Have a long term health issue
- Have an energy limiting chronic illness
- Come from a low socio-economic or low income background

If you're from a low socio-economic background, you might have:

- Gone to state school
- Had free school meals
- Had parents who didn't always know how much money they would make
- Grown up in the care system
- Been a young carer
- Been the first in your family to go to university

How will we select the Artists Bursaries?

We will give four bursaries to artists who are disabled, D/deaf, neurodivergent, living with a long term health condition or with an energy limiting chronic illness

We will give four bursaries to artists who come from a low socio-

	economic or low income background At least four of the eight bursaries will go to artists who live outside London
	We will check that you are eligible
	If you are eligible then we will enter your application into a random number generator. We will use True Random Number Generator at random.org.
	There will be two lists. One list is for artists who are disabled, D/deaf, neurodivergent, with a long-term health condition or an energy limiting chronic condition. One list if for artists from low socio-economic/low income backgrounds.

If you are both you will be put on both lists.

The random number generator will tell us who is selected.
